FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Sept. 1, 2026

Westport Country Playhouse Presents “Come Together: The Playhouse Sings The Beatles” on Thursday, September 10

Westport Country Playhouse will present “Come Together – The Playhouse Sings The Beatles,” on Thursday, September 10, at 7 p.m., an evening celebrating the timeless music of the “Fab Four.” A dynamic lineup of vocalists and special guest performers will take the stage, backed by a live band, to perform a selection of Beatles classics.

The concert will feature favorites spanning the band’s legendary catalog, from “I Want to Hold Your Hand” and “Help!” to “Hey Jude,” “Something,” and “Let It Be.”

Drew Wutke is creator, producer, and music director of the event. He is a multi-disciplinary artist who continues to music direct and play piano on Broadway, Off-Broadway, regionally, and on tour, collaborating alongside Tony, Emmy, and Grammy winners. He is resident music director with a private coaching studio in New York City. Previously at Westport Country Playhouse, he was music director for “Cruel Summer: The Playhouse Playlist,” “From Broadway to Hollywood,” “A Night for Swifties,” and “Me, Myself & Barbra.”

Performers will be announced soon.
